We yield our editorial space on the second page to a communication about the Nashville Medical College. It is but fair that both sides should be heard.

INDICATIONS: For Tennessee and the Ohio Valley, partly cloudy weather, local rains, variable winds mostly from east to south, rising temperature during Saturday and slight changes in barometer.

THE news from our exchanges is encouraging in regard to the State debt question. The State credit party is certainly growing, and much more interest is being manifested in the approaching election.

THE man who makes up the Cincinnati Commercial should look over his geography before he gets out an other issue. The idea of giving yellow fever news headed "Eastern Tennessee see" from Huntington, Martin and Clarksville don't suit East Tennessee ans worth a cent. There is not a case of yellow fever in East Tennessee during the summer, or otherwise, and we do not anticipate any.

A SPECIAL to the Cincinnati Gazette gives the following about the death of Dr. Harris in Memphis:

"Mrs. Dr. J. C. Harris, with a small infant in her arms, returned to the city last evening, and drove with a friend nearly to her former home before she learned that her husband had been buried six hours before. She had come to the city to nurse him as soon as she had heard of his illness; and upon hearing that he had died, she fainted in the carriage. Friends conveyed her out of the city to day. Dr.
Harris was robbed of his watch and a small sum of money while alive and conscious, but too weak to resist."

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.
The undersigned committee, appointed to draft resolutions on the death of Dr. R. L. Kirkpatrick, submit the following report.

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God, in the dispensation of His Providence, to remove by death from our midst our esteemed friend and co-laborer in the cause of education, Dr. R.
L. Kirkpatrick, of the University of Tennessee; and

WHEREAS, That, by his death, we feel that the cause of education suffers an irreparable loss. Therefore,

Resolved (1) That we, the teachers of Knox county, now assembled in the capacity of a Normal School, do tender our heartfelt sympathies to the beloved widow and children of the deceased.

Resolved (2) That by his death our University has lost a most efficient member of its Faculty, and we trust that his mantle may fall on a worthy successor.

Resolved (3) That a copy of these resolutions be furnished to the Knoxville papers for publication.

YELLOW FEVER.

Memphis, July 24.—Fourteen new cases were reported to the Board of Health this morning.

Among the number are Charles A.
Stacy and Alex. Kessler.

Two car-loads of tents, furnished by the Government, have arrived, and the city authorities will tomorrow establish a camp at a point seven miles north of the city on the Paducah Railroad.

The Howard Association yesterday placed a few nurses on duty.

This morning the street in front of their rooms was crowded by colored people, all anxious to be assigned to duty. They were informed that no more nurses were required, whereupon they dispersed.

Four deaths from yellow fever have occurred since last night, Mrs.
B. E. Hallender, John Lockard, Mrs. B. F. Miller and Henrietta Taylor.

CINCINNATI, O., July 24.—Special dispatches from the South report three cases of yellow fever at Bon Aqua Springs, Tenn., to which point many Memphis people fled. Among them is Lieut. Robert Dowdy, U. S. A.

Numerous rough looking plantation hands continue to arrive in the city in search of free rations, and advices from plantations twenty miles away report that negroes are openly saying they will go to Memphis to plunder and enrich themselves. From the present outlook it is doubtful if there will be able-bodied men in the city in two weeks to protect property against pillagers. The total number of fever cases is only ninety, but many mild cases were not brought to the notice of the authorities. The indications are that the fever will be of a less violent type than that of the previous year. In several families where all have been sick none have died.

NEW YORK, July 24.—A Memphis special to-day says: "There is a little less despondent feeling here. The population is much thinned out, and the prospects of getting the poorer class into camp eight miles from here are so good that the doctors believe that the fever will soon be exhausted for want of material. The report that the two steamers which started last night for St. Louis, loaded with passengers, have turned back on account of yellow fever on board proves not to be true. Both boats are on their way, and the passengers are all in good health."

GALVESTON, July 24.—The State Health Officer has issued the following proclamation relative to freight and passengers entering the State, to take effect on the 25th. Shippers must make an affidavit to accompany the shipments stating that such freight has not been in any place infected with yellow fever since July 1st. This affidavit, with an affidavit by the consignee to the effect shall be presented before the delivery of the freight. Passengers from points outside of the State must be provided with passports, signed and sealed with the seal of the town or county, that the bearer has not been in the infected place July 1st. Transportation companies must demand presentation of the same before the party can enter the State. Passengers are also required to take the usual affidavit before deputy quarantine officers.

Mails which have been fumigated at the State line are allowed to enter the State.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—A telgram received by the Nation Board of Health to-day announces nine new cases and two deaths since yesterday at Memphis, and five cases and one death at Mississippi City. The latter point is reported as isolated, and there is no danger of the disease spreading.
The four cases there are convalescent.

On account of the rigid enforcement of the quarantine regulations against Memphis, the acting assistant Postmaster, Gen. Motion, today telegraphed to the Postmaster at Cincinnati to cease sending through registered mail pouches to Arkansas by that route until the fever subsides or the quarantine is relaxed.

TUESDAY'S SICK AND DEATH LIST.

We clip the following from the American's dispatches, showing the sick and death list of Tuesday. We give the names for the benefit of the refugees now in this country:

SELECTING A CAMP.

The greatest difficulty yet experienced in carrying out these wholesome suggestions has been in the selection of a suitable camping ground. Several places along the line of the Memphis & Charleston Railroad have been selected, but in every instance the people living in the immediate vicinity have offered strong opposition. They fear an importation of the fever in their midst, and the result of all is that nothing has been done. Father Walsh, a Catholic priest of distinction, will re-establish Camp Father Matthew, which was the home of nearly five hundred of his faith, last year. This camp will be situated about six miles southeast of the city.

THE LOUISVILLE & NASHVILLE ROAD.

Dr. D. T. Porter, President of the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners, stated to your correspondent, this afternoon, that if the Louisville & Nashville Railroad had acted in a liberal spirit toward the authorities, he would have had the city depopulated, but with a greediness that stands unparalleled in the annals of history this Company have refused to extend any assistance towards the removing of the poor to a place of safety. It is true, in a few instances, they gave half-fare rates to Louisville, but even this small reduction has been stopped. Dr. Porter was notified, to-day, that half-fare rates could only be given to McKenzie, Tenn., which renders him powerless to remove the masses.

NEW CASES.

There were seven new cases and six deaths to-day. The following are the new cases as reported to the Board of Health: Mrs. Powers, aged 24, 374 Shelby street; John Wheeler, aged 14, 8 Jones avenue; Dan Creedon, aged 49, 280 South street; Mrs. Hamerle, aged 40, 261 South street; Rosa Walker, colored, aged 27, 295 South street; Van Fletcher, colored, aged 40, 55 Ross avenue, Wm. Cooper Wood, colored, aged 50, 8 LaRosa street.

THE DEATHS.

The following persons have died of the yellow fever since last night:

T. R. Kirman, aged 44, 190 Robinson street; Harry Pay, aged 11, 425 Wellington street; Patrick Meath, aged 15, 196 DeSoto street; Bob Thompson, aged 29, City Hospital; Louis Brumond, aged 35, 352 Hernando road; Mollie Hamerle, aged 15, 261 South street.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—The Superintendent of Mails at St. Louis has telegraphed to the Postoffice Department that the Postmaster there has refused to receive mails from the infected districts and asking instructions. The following reply was sent by the Acting Superintendent of Railway Service today: "By direction of the Postmaster-General, you will deliver all mails that can not be forwarded to their destination, on account of quarantine regulations, to the Postmaster at St. Louis, who will be held responsible for the safe keeping of the same."

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, July 22.—A letter from Jefferson Davis received in this city yesterday by a brother of Mrs. Sarah A. Dorsey, who bequeathed all her property to the former, eulogizes very highly the character of the deceased. He does not speak with surprise of the bequest. It is nevertheless positively stated that the will is to be contested, without compromise, upon the ground of undue influence or inability to execute such instrument.

Able counsel in this city and New Orleans has already been engaged.
The Republican State Committee met here to-day, and decided to hold the State Convention at Saratoga on the third of September.

TENNESSEE.

NASHVILLE, July 24.—Collector Woodcock has just received intelligence of an attempt by eight men to release from the Overton jail an illicit distiller named Thompson Moon on the night after his arrest and incarceration. They attempted to procure the keys of the jail from the jailer, who told them the keeper of the hotel had them. The Sheriff and posse soon after appeared and fired a volley into them when they damped.

ILLINOIS.

CHICAGO, July 14.—A special to the Tribune from Quincy, Ill., says a band of determined men entered the jail where Frank Hobbles, colored, was confined on a charge of criminally assaulting and nearly killing Mrs. Ferguson at Redding, Pike county, shot him dead and dragged his body, riddled with bullets, through the streets. His victim had identified him.

NEW YORK.

SARATOGA, July 24.—The first race, three-fourths of a mile dash, was won by Egypt, Wallenstein second, Bonnie Wood third, all lapping.
Time, 1:20.

The second race for the Saratoga cup was won by Bramble by six lengths, Wilful second, Loulanier third; time, 4:11.

The third race, mile dash, was won by Jericho, Skylark second, Blossom third; time, 1:49.

The fourth race was a selling race of a mile and a quarter and was won by Nipper in 2:18; Nanniet second.

MINOR DISPATCHES.

SALISBURY, MD., July 24.—The large mills of Jackson & Co., together with their extensive lumber yards, have been burning since noon. The fire is now spreading into the lower end of town and fears are entertained that the whole town will be destroyed. A call for assistance has been sent to other towns.

FOREIGN NEWS.

LONDON, July 24.—Special dispatches from South Africa show that Sir Garnet Wolseley ordered Lord Chelmsford to fall back on Kambawasa, so as to unite with General Carlock's column. Sir Garnet Wolseley is at Port Dam-ford, in the neighborhood of General Crearlock's command. When the troops entered Ulundi they found everything of value had been removed to the new house built by King Cetwayo when the war broke out, fifteen miles north of Ulundi and approached only through a long and narrow ravine. Cetwayo has some of his chief regiments with him as a body guard. Correspondents at Cetwayo, though all agreeing that the victory over the Zulus was decisive, express some doubts as to whether King Cetwayo will immediately come to terms.

BORDEAUX, July 24.—At a crowded meeting here to-day M.
De Lessips said that American support has been secured for the Darrien Canal project. Nine of the principal financial establishments in Paris, he said, had promised aid.

More of the ruins of Carrying Poles

GATTINBURG, TENN., July 22.

MR. EDITOR: Wm. B. Reagan, a young man of our settlement, who has been in the habit of carrying pistols, met with a fatal accident on Sunday morning, the 20th inst., near the foot of Smoky Mountain, near Mr. Vance Newman's. He was crossing a rocky branch and slipped and fell, dropping his pistol, which struck a rock, making the pistol discharge the load into Reagan's left side. It ranged towards his right shoulder, perhaps piercing his heart. He only spoke two words, saying "I am killed! I am killed!" and died in a few minutes. He leaves a father near 77 years of age, and an aged mother and many relatives to mourn his sad misfortune, and he himself hurried into eternity without a minute's warning. O that the practice of carrying concealed weapons were brought to an end, and that young men would look on the practice with contempt, and not keep company with young men or old men who carry them.

"SA-LUTING THE BRIDE."

A Groom Who Had No Intention of Being Slighted
Detroit Free Press.

There was a marriage at the upper end of the Detroit, Lansing and Northern road the other day. A great big chap, almost able to throw a car-load of lumber off the track, fell in love with a widow who was cooking for the hands in a saw-mill, and after a week's acquaintance they were married. The boys around the mill lent William three calico shirts, a dress coat and a pair of white pants, and clipped in a purse of $20, and the couple started for Detroit on a bridal tour within an hour after being married.

"This 'ere lady," explained William, as the conductor came along for tickets, "are my bride. Just spliced fifty-six minutes ago. Cost $2, but darn the cost! She's a lily of the valley, Mary is an I'm the right bower in a new pack of cards; conductor, salute the bride!"

The conductor hesitated. The widow had freckles and wrinkles and a turn-up nose, and kissing the bride was no great satisfaction.

"Conductor, salute the bride, or look out for tornadoes," continued William, as he rose up and shed his coat.

The conductor sa-luted. It was the best thing he could do just then.

"I never did put on style before," muttered William, "but I'm bound to see this thing through if I have to fight all Michigan. These 'ere passengers has got to come to the chalk, they has?"

The car was full. William walked down the aisle, waved his hand to command attention, and said:

"I've just been married; over there sits the bride. Anybody who wants to sa-lute the bride kn do so now. Anybody who don't want to will have cause to believe that a tree fell on him."

One by one the men walked up and kissed the widow, until only one was left. He was asleep, William reached over and lifted him into a sitting position at one movement, and commanded:

"Ar' ye goin' to dust over thar an' kiss the bride?"

"Blarst your bride, and you too," growled the passenger.

William drew him over the back of the seat, laid him down in the aisle, tied his legs in a knot, and was making a bundle of him just of a size to go through the window, when the man caved and went over and saluted.

"Now, then," said William, as he put on his coat, "this bridal tour will be resumed as usual, and if Mary and me squeeze hands or get to laying on each other's shoulder, I shall demand who laughed about it, an' I'll make him e-magine that I'm a hull boom full of the biggest kind of saw logs, an' more coming down on the next, rise. Now, Mary, hitch along, an' let me git my arm around ye."

NORFOLK, VA., July 24.—Maxey Gordon, (colored) residing on the truck farm of George James, near Bower's Hill, mysteriously disappeared last Monday night, and today his body was found buried in a marshy part of the farm, bearing evidence of murder. His wife and a man named Miles Whitehurst, (also colored) have been arrested on suspicion. The clothing of the latter was found spotted with blood.

The State debt discussion in East Tennessee in favor of the 50-4 compromise, was opened at Bristol Monday by Gen. Wm. G. Brien, of Nashville, and Chas. D. Porter, of Paris. They spoke at Johnson City Tuesday, at Jonesboro' yesterday, are at Greeneville to-day, Morristown to-morrow and this place Saturday.
